Chilling True Stories from Norwalk's Past Brought to Life at A Haunting at Mill Hill

NORWALK, CT - As the sun sets, the spirits come out to play... Take a lantern-lit tour through the old Mill Hill graveyard! Hear chilling tales based on real events from Norwalk's hidden past at the Norwalk Historical Society's 9th annual, "A Haunting at Mill Hill". Friday, October 18, 2019 and Friday, October 25, 2019 with tours at 7:30pm and 9:00pm. Saturday, October 19, 2019 and Saturday, October 26, 2019 with tours at 6:00pm, 7:30pm and 9:00pm. Each tour is approximately one hour. Space is limited; purchase tickets online at MillHillHaunt.com or norwalkhistoricalsociety.org. Mill Hill Historic Park is located at 2 East Wall Street, Norwalk, CT 06851. No parking onsite. Follow signs to parking across the street.

Among the crooked gravestones of Mill Hill, ghostly entities are waiting to share their true stories of death, murder, insanity and destruction. A murderous train conductor, a heroic soldier from the Battle of Norwalk, and a young girl who perished on the trolley tracks at Mill Hill are some of the ghosts you will encounter along the way. At the end of the tour, take a photo with the spirits in the new "Hauntagram" Photo Booth...if you dare! Created by local haunted house and special effects experts, George Holomakoff and Greg Kling, bone-chilling surprises await! Bring a flashlight and a friend!
